I bring a decade of entrepreneurial experience turning ideas into profitable ventures. I launched a longboarding glove business in Lima to fund my Marketing degree, honed QA, UX, and growth hacking skills at NYC startups, and in Germany, created a job platform and a board game sold to a UK publisher. My analytical thinking, execution, and process optimization skills suit founder associate, project manager, and business developer roles.

EXPERIENCE

REGIONAL DIRECTOR FOR SOUTH AMERICA -> www.heidi-hire.com

2024 - Present

Currently leading business development and operations for Heidi in South America, focusing on expanding the company's presence and managing key relationships in the region.

FOUNDER AT JOBDIRECTO -> www.jobdirecto.com

2017 - Present / Team of 2 people

Built a platform that connects tens of thousands of Hispanic immigrants with job opportunities in New York, now a profitable small business.

GAME DESIGNER OF AYAKUCHO -> Instagram / BoardGameGeek / Kickstarter.

2020 - Present / Team of 2 people

Designed and self-published a board game called Bamberg, which was later sold to a publisher in the UK. Repurchased it to further develop it into Ayakucho.
